Study and Internship Abscort

The semester long program begins in January with students spending eight weeks in Sydney, Australia taking four classes that include two Management core accounting and finance courses and two other courses which may satisfy CCC requirements. The remaining eight weeks of the semester, students will participate in a business internship either in Sydney or Singapore. What an amazing resume building opportunity!

Open to all majors across all colleges, this program is particularly well suited to Accounting and Finance majors, as it offers Business Law (ACFM 201) and Financial Decision Modeling (ANOP 302). All students interested in taking ANOP 302 must complete the proper pre-requisites (ANOP 102 and either ACFM 203 or ACFM 210). Additional Management course options will be offered.

The program includes a one-week spring break trip to Cairns, Australia where students will snorkel or dive in the Great Barrier Reef, visit the rainforest and waterfalls and spend time at Fitzroy Island.

PLEASE ATTEND ONE 30-MINUTE INFORMATION SESSION*

TUESDAY, AUGUST 30, NOON – HOLMES 116 (HISLOP AUDITORIUM)
THURSDAY, SEPT. 1 AT 4 PM. – ELC 217

If unable to attend a session, schedule a meeting with one of the program contacts.*
